

3rd International Disability Studies Conference 'The Art of Belonging' [1]

30 novembre - 2 décembre 2017 - Amsterdam (Pays-Bas)

In a world that is increasingly divided along different lines, varying from socio-economic to bodily differences, the 'art of belonging' is of utmost importance. How and why do people practice the art of belonging in different places of the world, how are these practices informed by the past and which practices are future-proof? The conference [2] will bring together scholars from different disciplines, engaged citizens and artists to discuss these questions and exchange ideas and practices.
